

Impress Me When You Write!
Impress the person who grades your WrAP!

Correctly include as many of these sentence types/punctuation marks as possible. Remember, when you edit you will find errors that can be corrected in a variety of ways.

1. compound sentence (FANBOYS with comma)
2. compound subject (no comma)
3. compound predicate (no comma)
4. dialogue (capitalized, punctuated, indented, detailed tags)
5. introductory clause/phrase (AAAWWUBIS - comma)
6. correct run-on sentences:
 - a. turn into two sentences
 - b. turn into a compound sentence
7. correct comma splices:
 - a. turn into two sentences
 - b. turn into a compound sentence (FANBOYS with comma)
 - c. use a semicolon (no FANBOYS nor comma)
8. direct address (comma/commas)
9. listing commas (words, phrases, etc.)
10. interjections (Wow, Hey, well, etc. - notice the comma)
11. ellipsis (to show a pause - "That's ... incredible!" I cried.)